The Rhapsody of Swing

Artist Profile

An expressive vocalist whose recordings center on melody, tone, and emotional clarity.

Jodi DiPiazza is a vocalist and pianist whose music is built around the voice—clear, controlled, and emotionally direct. With a foundation in classical training and a natural connection to jazz and American Songbook tradition, her performances favor authenticity over excess.

Rather than relying on production or trend, her recordings are shaped by phrasing, tone, and presence—allowing each song to unfold with a sense of ease and intention.

The Rhapsody of Swing

“The Rhapsody of Swing” is an original uptempo swing recording written and performed by pianist-vocalist Jodi DiPiazza. Blending classic swing energy with a modern, voice-forward approach, the track captures the atmosphere of a late-night jazz club—where music, rhythm, and a little magic come together.

Driven by piano, electric guitar, bass, and drums, the recording moves with natural lift and momentum, allowing the vocal to lead with clarity and feel. The performance draws from classic swing tradition while staying fresh, open, and alive.

Rather than nostalgia alone, the track captures the feel of a room in motion, driven by rhythm, dancing, and live energy.

Artistic Identity

- Voice-forward recordings centered on melody and phrasing
- Classical foundation with jazz and contemporary influence
- Great American Songbook lineage with a modern sensibility
- Emphasis on tone, clarity, and emotional authenticity
